

SMALL, PROFESSIONAL PNEUMATIC PRESS WITH A CAPACITY OF 130 LITERS

Horizontal pneumatic press with lateral membrane certified according to the current European Directive, with closed tank in AISI 304 stainless steel and equipped with a high-capacity drainage channel. Doors that open and close manually and easily. The membrane made of thick fabric covered with food polymer, inflates completely even in the absence of product, no minimum load is required. Quick clamping system without perforating the membrane. Frame entirely made of AISI 304 stainless steel. Electric control panel and covers entirely made of AISI 304 stainless steel, in compliance with the current European Directive. Machine equipped with wheels to facilitate movement. Possibility of pressing in an inert gas atmosphere using the E pressing system. Lateral safety and emergency button for user safety. Automation Simple and user-friendly E-panel operator interface with "touch screen" allowing easy access to the programming pages. Allows management and programming of all work cycles and monitoring of the work cycle and the status of the press. 30 pressing programs are stored in the PLC.

